Executive Search and Recruitment dedicated to Finance and Operations

fdu enable companies to make the best Finance and Operations Leadership hiring decisions based on our deep sector knowledge and influential relationships. Our long-standing international Client partnerships are founded on a results-driven approach that consistently delivers outcomes above expectations.

Our process

- Understanding tight timelines and driving through set milestones.
- Getting to the point: We deal in facts rather than theory.
- Identifying the bottom line and then building deeper rapport.
- Appreciation of multi-location stakeholder management.
- Thorough planning followed by precise communication.
- In depth local market knowledge – culture, style, network.
- We debate and advise for the better of our Clients.

fdu were very professional in putting forward how they were going to work with us, scour the market, do the necessary searches and really get an understanding of our business. There is a consistency of service and that is where fdu really stand out.
